

Capítulo 12

Jamie and Carlos are in la Ciudad de México in order to meet with a lawyer. Before their appointment, they do a little sightseeing. Jamie finally sees the authentic copy of Diego Rivera's painting, a copy of which she has as a poster in her room. During their meeting, la licenciada Beltrán, a friend of the Navarro's, takes out the faxed copy of the will, which Jamie sent. In her opinion, the will is valid, but she makes clear to the two that don Silvestre will do everything possible to keep "his" fortune. The matter will have to be decided in court in Querétaro. If the will is proven valid, Jamie will have to pay taxes and will be required to live in Querétaro. Jamie asks for her help, and the lawyer agrees to come to Querétaro to resolve the matter in court.
